Irish Universities Act, 1908.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, GALWAY.

We, the Dublin Commissioners appointed under the Irish Universities Act, 1908, to make Statutes for the general government of the University which has since been incorporated under the name of the National University of Ireland, and the Constituent Colleges thereof, having taken into consideration as respects the Statutes for University College, Galway, being one of the said Constituent Colleges, the representations made to us by the Governing Body of the said College, and by all other persons who appeared to us to be interested in the making of Statutes for the said College, Under and by virtue of the powers in this behalf conferred on us by the said Act, Do by this present instrument under our Seal, make the Statutes hereunto annexed for University College, Galway.

Given under our Common Seal, at Dublin, this 29th day of July, 1910.

Present at the Meeting of the Commissioners when their
Common Seal was affixed,

L.S.

ROBERT DONOVAN,
Secretary to the Dublin Commissioners

STATUTE B.

CHAPTER I.

1. Subject to the rights of the existing Professor, the Professorship styled in Chapter XV. of Statute A, made on the 15th May, 1909, the "Professorship of Modern Irish Language and Literature" and the Professorship styled in such Statute and Chapter the "Professorship of Celtic Philology," to which the stipends of £300 a year and £150 a year, respectively, are attached are hereby extinguished, and in lieu thereof a "Professorship of Irish Language, Philology and Literature," being a whole-time Professorship, with a stipend of £350 a year, is hereby instituted in the College.
2. The Professorship in said Chapter of Statute A, described as the "Professorship of Jurisprudence and Political Economy," shall henceforth cease to be a whole-time Professorship.
3. In addition to the Lectureships instituted in said Chapter of Statute A, a Lectureship in Modern Irish Language, not being a whole-time Lectureship, with a stipend of £150 a year, and a "Lectureship in Pathology," not being a whole-time Lectureship, with a stipend of £100 a year, are hereby instituted in the College.
4. Save as hereby otherwise expressly provided the Professorship and Lectureships hereby instituted shall be tenable respectively for the same term and upon the same conditions, and the holders thereof shall be subject to the same duties and obligations as if the said Professorship and Lectureships had been instituted by the said Chapter XV. of the said Statute.
5. This Statute shall be construed with and as part of said Statute A, and may be referred to as Statute B of University College, Galway.
